New Members Join CAM Board of Directors

Branson, MO... Two new members have been added to the board of directors for Christian Action Ministries (CAM) for 2011. Cynthia Carson and Janet Akers were both inducted on to the board at a January meeting. Cynthia is a member of the management team at Sight & Sound Theatres. Janet is an account executive at Corporate Business Systems.

Along with Carson and Akers, the CAM board currently consists of chairman Jack Burke, vice chairman Jonas Arjes, treasurer Dave Hoy, executive director Pat Davis, past chairman Larry Johnson, Tim Mahoney, Ben Dutton, and Dan Lehning.

“We are blessed to have Cynthia and Janet join our team,” said Burke. “Our board members donate significant amounts of their time, along with their creativity, talent, and passion to follow in the footsteps of Jesus, to help maintain CAM as a viable resource for the needy in Taney County.”

CAM operates food pantries in both Branson and Forsyth, along with a mobile outreach to the eastern Taney County communities of Bradleyville, Protem, and Reuter. On average, over 700 families a month receive assistance from CAM, which is totally supported by the community.

People needing assistance can come to the Branson location at 610 South 6th Street, Suite 102 in the lower level, or the Forsyth location at 10275 East Highway 76. The Branson food pantry is open Monday through Friday from Noon until 4 PM. The Forsyth location is open Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday from 10 AM until 1 PM. Although no one is turned away, people should bring photo identification for all adults, a social security card for all family members, and proof of Taney County residency.

Anyone wishing to donate cash, food, or time, can call Pat Davis at 334-1157 or visit the CAM website at www.christianactionministries.org.
